Ragheed Al Ameen, Procurement Coordinator
Ref: RFQ/10/17
Date: January 19, 2010
Subject: Purchase of 4-Way Voting Screens (Polling Booths) for early elections 2010 in Sudan.

1. Introduction

The International Foundation for Electoral Systems (IFES) is an independent, non-governmental organization providing professional support to electoral democracy. Through field work, applied research and advocacy, we strive to promote citizen participation, transparency, accountability in political life and civil society.

IFES has been awarded a contract by USAID to support the electoral process in Sudan. It will cover both the presidential, gubernatorial and legislative elections planned for 2010 and the Southern Sudan and Abyei referenda scheduled for 2011. The IFES Sudan Election Administration Support Program is designed to accompany all phases of the electoral process. It will assist the National Election Commission (NEC) and its subsidiaries in institutional and capacity building as well as election management.

5. Evaluation & Contracting

An IFES Selection Committee will then consider the various quotations. It may contact selected companies in order to clarify details of the quotations and will then proceed to a decision on the most appropriate supplier or suppliers for the 4-Way Voting Screens (Polling Booths).

The evaluation will be based on the following criteria(s):

- Experience Reference Information
- Quality Assurance Information
- Delivery Time
- Price

Each criteria will be graded as follows:

Evaluation Criteria Grading	No of Points
Exceed Expectations	2
Meet Expectations	1
Do Not Meet Expectations	0

This project fall under the USAID; therefore, a competitive price is pursued and companies are encouraged to consider this when submitting initial information and/or quotes for the participation in this event.

The contract for the project will be between IFES and the company. This contract will be negotiated immediately upon selection.

6. Penalty Clauses

The contract will contain a schedule for delivery no later than March 07, 2010 for the Voting Screens (Polling Booths). Time is of the essence to this contract. Deadlines are absolute and non-negotiable. Late delivery is not acceptable. Selected vendor will forfeit the last payment if delivery occurs after the deadline.
